

CENTRUL DE CERCETARE
ÎN ETICĂ APLICATĂ

The Faculty of Philosophy of the University of Bucharest, together with

Carol Davila University of Medicine and Pharmacy, Chair of History of Medicine

invite you to the multidisciplinary workshop

History and ethics at the crossroads. A European perspective with international participation

The meeting will be held at Faculty of Philosophy, Splaiul Independentei No. 204, Room S6, Friday July 15th, at 15.00.

Special guests: Amir Muzur and Iva Rincic from the Department of Social Sciences and Medical Humanities University of Rijeka - School of Medicine, Croatia

Programme

Laurentiu Staicu (University of Bucharest):

Philosophical imagination and ethical judgements

Amir Muzur (University of Rijeka):

The Concept and Project of European Bioethics and Bioethical Standards

Heiner Fangerau (University of Düsseldorf):

Mobile Health, Ethics and Research - Giving Informed Consent in the period of Big Data

Sorin Hostiu (Carol Davila University, Bucharest):

Crystallisation of the concept of informed consent in France

Iva Rincic (University of Rijeka):

The State of Art of Bioethics in Croatia

George Calin (MD Anderson Cancer Research Centre, Houston)

Ethical Challenges in Cancer Research: From Optimism to Privatization and Legal Issues

Irina Rentea (National Institute of Legal Medicine, Bucharest):

Sham surgery. Ethics and history

Octavian Buda (Carol Davila University, Bucharest):

Wonder Pills: Informed Consent in History of Psychiatry Research

Concluding roundtable:

Future collaboration in medical humanities between Romania and Croatia

Under the auspices of Romanian National Authority for Scientific Research, PCCA 215/2012